

Courses of Study for Special Education

Listed below are courses of study for Special Education. They are being offered by the University of Delaware for those with a masters degree seeking intensive professional development through a course of study approved for a plus 15 salary increment...

Elementary or Secondary Special Education
Contact Person: Laura Eisenman
Select one course from each row for a total of 5 courses (15 credits):	Credit Hours
EDUC 697- Education of Exceptional Children OR EDUC 673- Transitions from Secondary Special Education OR EDUC 682- Research Issues in Special Education	3
EDUC 680- Educational Diagnosis	3
EDUC 681- Techniques for Behavioral Change	3
EDUC 674- Instructional Methods in Secondary Special Education OR EDUC 679- Methods of Instructing Learners with Mild Disabilities	3
EDUC 646- Assistive Technology for Secondary Schools and Work OR EDUC 652- Introduction to Technology in Special Education & Rehabilitation OR EDUC 653- Computer-Assisted Instruction in Remedial/Special Ed OR EDUC 655- Assistive Technology	3